

Fall 2018 :

12 September - 7pm - Danse/Conference: "Réappropriation de son histoire, réappropriation du corps". Bolewa Sabourin, danseur et "activiste"

2 October - 6:30pm - Exhibition: MYST, "The Embodied Border". Alternative narratives on border identities - frontier, territory, nation, and diaspora.

3 October - 10:00am to 5:00pm – Study day: MYST, Conversation about "The Embodied Border".

15 October - 7pm – Introduction to Bolewa Sabourin and Balla Fofana's book, La Rage de Vivre (Faces Cachées Éditions, Septembre 2018)

The conversation will be monitored by Kaiama Glover, Associate Professor of French and Africana Studies, Barnard College.

La Rage de Vivre:

Born from a Congolese father from Kinshasa and a French mother from La Rochelle, Bolewa Sabourin mirrors a whole generation : at the intersection of multiple identities. At 33, this man has known exile since his birth.

18 October - 7pm - Conference : "Immigration in France today : in between solidarity and reject"

30 October – 4 :30pm to 7pm – The Sojourner Project : Dialogues on Black Precarity, Fungibility, and Futurity

- 7pm – Round Table : MFL, Psychanalyse et politique - 50 years of history, in partnership with Éditions des Femmes & Tschann Library

13 November- 10am to 7pm – Round Table : Struggle against dictatorships, conversation with Roselyn Chenu, Gilles Bataillon, Joao Fatela & Joanna Nowicki. In partnership with Columbia Master in History and Literature.

15 November - 9am to 8pm – Study day: "Sex after 68"

16 Novembre - 9am to 8pm – Study day : "Colonial and postcolonial sexuality"

6-7 Décembre - 9am - Colloquium : Queer Theory: Here, Now, Everywhere. In partnership with Columbia Center for the Study of Social Difference